27.		Favor	Anna Marie Miramontes	My name is Anna Marie Miramontes . On behalf of the Center for Workers' Rights I am writing in support of Agenda Item No. 27. Los Angeles' 343,000 undocumented immigrant workers are crucial for powering our economy and communities. AB 2847 would address a long-standing and harmful exclusion from the safety net by providing Los Angeles' excluded immigrant workers access to unemployment benefits. When they experience a loss of employment, they should not be forced to use up their savings to afford basic necessities for themselves and their loved ones. During the pandemic we saw the lifesaving impacts that unemployment insurance had for thousands of angelenos. There is no reason our immigrant siblings, family, and friends should be barred from accessing them. For this reason, Center for Workers' Rights supports Agenda Item No. 27. Thank you for your leadership.
			Cody Rudd	My name is Cody. On behalf of the inland empire immigrant youth collective I am writing in support of Agenda item 27. 			Khiabeth Sanchez	My name is Khiabeth Sanchez. On behalf of the Long Beach Immigrant Rights Coalition I am writing in support of Agenda Item No. 27. Los Angeles' 343,000 undocumented immigrant workers are crucial for powering our economy and our communities. Throughout the pandemic, immigrant angelenos excluded from unemployment insurance were disproportionately represented in the industries with the highest levels of COVID, including Manufacturing, Accommodation and Food Services, and Construction. Workers should not have to take on hazardous work just to make ends meet. During the pandemic we saw the lifesaving impacts that unemployment insurance had for thousands of angelenos. 			Shiu Ming Cheer	On behalf of the California Immigrant Policy Center, I am writing in support of Agenda Item No. 27 (Supporting a Safety Net for All). Los Angeles' 343,000 undocumented immigrant workers are crucial for powering our economy and our communities. Throughout the pandemic, immigrant angelenos excluded from unemployment benefits were disproportionately represented in the industries with the highest levels of COVID deaths, including Manufacturing, Accommodation and Food Services, and Construction. Workers should not have to take on hazardous work just to make ends meet. During the pandemic we saw the lifesaving impacts that unemployment benefits had for thousands of angelenos. There is no reason our immigrant siblings, family, and friends should be barred from accessing them. For this reason, the California Immigrant Policy Center supports Agenda Item No. 27.
